Richard Lin / Violin

Taiwanese-American violinist Richard Lin has already amassed a startling collection of top prizes at major international competitions and collaborated with numerous orchestras at celebrated concert venues. In 2013, Mr. Lin released his first album on the Fontec label. The album includes works for Violin and Orchestra by Beethoven, Bartok, and Brahms performed with the Sendai Philharmonic and conductor Pascal Verrot. The next year, Mr. Lin recorded and released his second album consists of the complete Brahms Sonatas for Piano and Violin with his brother, Robert Lin. Born in Phoenix, Arizona and raised in Taiwan. He gave his public debut at age of eleven when he performed Saint-Saëns Violin Concerto No. 3 with the Taipei Symphony Orchestra. At sixteen, he moved to the United States with his teacher Dr. Gregory Lee, newly named to the violin faculty of the University of Oklahoma. In the same year, Mr. Lin was accepted to the Curtis Institute of Music and studied with Aaron Rosand. He later received his Master's degree at The Juilliard School, where he studied with renowned professor Lewis Kaplan.
